

Developing the Young Workforce
Scotland's Youth Employment Strategy
Implementing the Recommendations of the Commission for Developing Scotland's Young Workforce 19 - 20

Schools	Colleges	Apprenticeships	Employers	Equality
Work Relevant Learning from 3 – 18	A Valued and Valuable Choice	Access to Work Based Learning for All Young People	Their Investment in the Young Workforce	Developing the Talents of All Our Young People
During 2019-2020, we will see: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• An increase in the uptake of vocational qualifications available to those in the senior phase;</li> </ul>	During 2019-2020, we will see: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• College outcome agreements for academic year 2020-21 reflect a regional curriculum, with vocational options widely available, informed by secondary schools, local authorities and employers.</li> </ul>	During 2019-2020, we will see: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Achievement of Modern Apprenticeship volume target and diversity targets.</li> </ul>	During 2019-2020, we will see: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Employer satisfaction driving parts of the system nationally and informing regional curriculum planning fully.</li> </ul>	During 2019-2020, we will see: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Achievement of Modern Apprenticeship volume target and diversity targets.</li> </ul>