

Forces Children's Education Website

www.forceschildrenseducation.scot

Background

- Forces families moving to Scotland needed a dedicated method to locate information about schools & education.
- Informed by Parent Forums, ADES-Armed Forces Working Group and pilot study tested. developed collaboratively.

Aims

- Provides information about the Scottish education system and enables search for primary and secondary schools in specific locations, by Service (Royal Navy, Army and RAF).
- Access to a wide range of resources for parents and educators.

What we did and how it impacted on Armed Forces children and young people

- Positive feedback (parents, educators, network groups & partners)
- Linked to information & partner groups.
- Google Analytics record steady increase in hits & returns.
- Councils own their page of information to ensure accuracy & contact

Next Steps

- Continue to develop and promote good practice examples & resources
- (networks, Councils, RICs)
- Add survey to website
- Increase links with partners
- Focus on info for Veterans (families in transitions)
- Publicise on Posting Orders, Face Book
