

Dyslexia Scotland – List of Top 10 Resources for Teachers

Resource: name/brief description	Lead organisation/partners	Link/where to find it
Addressing Dyslexia Toolkit: free online comprehensive Toolkit designed for teachers and local authority staff working with children and young people aged 3-18 to provide information and guidance on supporting learners with dyslexia. It is set within the Scottish educational system and linked to Curriculum for Excellence for teachers.	It is managed by Dyslexia Scotland, funded by the Scottish Government and maintained by the Addressing Dyslexia Toolkit working group.	www.addressingdyslexia.org
Reading and writing circles: These reading and writing circles, available to download on the above Toolkit, support the acquisition of Reading and writing Skills. They provide opportunities for discussion and/or investigation when considering the needs of our learners.	Developed by the Addressing Dyslexia Toolkit working group	http://addressingdyslexia.org/literacy-circles
Free online learning modules: Three free online learning modules, which support GTC Scotland Professional Standards, Professional Update and Professional Recognition, have been developed in response to Recommendations 1 and 2 of the 2014 Education Scotland Review: Making Sense of Dyslexia: Education for Children and Young People with Dyslexia in Scotland. The modules are primarily for teachers, school management and GTCS registered local authority education officers.	The Open University modules were developed by a collaborative group made up of Education Scotland, Dyslexia Scotland, the Scottish Government, Addressing Dyslexia Toolkit working group and the Open University.	http://addressingdyslexia.org/free-online-learning-modules <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Module 1: 'Introduction to Dyslexia and Inclusive Practice' • Module 2: 'Supporting Dyslexia, Inclusive Practice and Literacy' • Module 3: 'Dyslexia: Identification and Support'

Dyslexia Scotland information leaflets: a range of over 30 2-sided leaflets about dyslexia. Many of the leaflets have a handy reading list. They are free to download on the Dyslexia Scotland website	Dyslexia Scotland	http://www.dyslexiascotland.org.uk/our-leaflets
A range of resources developed for teachers, including 'Count Me in' and a series of booklets on Supporting pupils with dyslexia in primary schools and in the secondary curriculum.	Dyslexia Scotland	http://www.dyslexiascotland.org.uk/resources-educators
Dyslexia Unwrapped: a website especially for children and young people with dyslexia aged 8-18 years. A useful resource to refer to young people and parents, as well as for teachers to provide an insight of what dyslexia means to young people.	Dyslexia Scotland	https://unwrapped.dyslexiascotland.org.uk/
'Dyslexia Voice' – a quarterly magazine for members of Dyslexia Scotland, which has a different dyslexia-related theme each quarter. Teachers can join as individuals or as part of an Educator membership package.	Dyslexia Scotland	http://www.dyslexiascotland.org.uk/become-member
Our Resource Centre , based at our head office in Stirling, has a wide selection of books, materials and research documents on dyslexia. Free to our members.	Dyslexia Scotland	http://www.dyslexiascotland.org.uk/resource-centre
Annual Dyslexia Scotland Education conference: Keynote speakers and practical workshops and displays are available at this fee-paying annual conference for teachers in Scotland	Dyslexia Scotland	http://www.dyslexiascotland.org.uk/education-conference
Dyslexia awareness training – tailored training for educators about dyslexia, provided for a fee by our trainers, selected from our pool of trainers.	Dyslexia Scotland	http://www.dyslexiascotland.org.uk/need-training

The Professional Learning Award for Organisations was issued to Dyslexia Scotland by the General Teaching Council for Scotland (GTCS) for our work in supporting and promoting teacher professional learning. This Quality Mark shows that we have been assessed through GTCS's independent quality assurance processes.

Charity No: SC 000951 Registered No: SC 153321

