

TALES OF THE UNEXPECTED

Have there been any unforeseen impacts? These may be both positive and negative.

NEXT STEPS

To what extent is your project now embedded in your curriculum?
How do you plan to continue with your project beyond June 2014?

Education Scotland, The Scottish Government and Scottish Business in the Community have worked in partnership to fund and support schools to build the confidence and capacity of practitioners to improve learning and teaching within food education; increase the knowledge and skills of staff around food education and to build sustained partnerships within the learning community to enhance food education for learners.
