Dear Parent/Carer

In April 2025, a team of inspectors from Education Scotland visited Glenboig Primary School. During our visit, we talked to parents/carers and children and worked closely with the headteacher and staff.

The inspection team found the following strengths in the school's work.

- Children who are polite, well-mannered and happy to be part of the Glenboig School community. Staff work well together to ensure children learn in a positive, nurturing environment.
- The newly appointed headteacher who effectively supports a collaborative approach to improve learning opportunities for children. The staff team are highly motivated to continue to improve their professional knowledge with improved outcomes for children at the centre of all they do.
- The effective partnership working that enhances the work of the school to meet the needs of children. This has led to a varied and popular achievements provision that supports children to develop life skills such as teamwork and creativity.

The following areas for improvement were identified and discussed with the headteacher and a representative from North Lanarkshire Council.

- Teachers should focus on how well assessment of children's learning helps them plan effective learning for all groups of children.
- Teachers should continue to gather high-quality evidence that helps to build a reliable picture of children's progress over time.
- All staff should continue to develop a shared and consistent approach to learning and teaching. This should help to improve the consistency of learning and teaching across the school and improve outcomes for children.

We gathered evidence to enable us to evaluate the school's work using quality indicators from How good is our school? \(4th edition\). Quality indicators help schools, local authorities and inspectors to judge what is working well and what needs to be improved. Following the inspection of each school, the Scottish Government gathers details of our evaluations to keep track of how well Scottish schools are doing.

Here are Education Scotland's evaluations for Glenboig Primary School

What happens next?

We are confident that the school has the capacity to continue to improve and so we will make no more visits in connection with this inspection. North Lanarkshire Council will inform parents/carers about the school's progress as part of its arrangements for reporting on the quality of its schools.
