CREATIVITY AND EXPRESSIVE ARTS TRANSFORMING EDUCATION

Welcome

We will begin at 5.15pm

Feel free to grab a tea or coffee before we get started. Online protocols:

- Please mute your microphone unless you are speaking (this is to minimise feedback, echo and background noise).
 - Please turn on Captions if required
 - Please introduce yourself in the chat pane – name, where you come from. You can also post comments, questions and thoughts here too.
- Resources you may find helpful:

- A note pad or device to record your thoughts.
- Access to a mobile device (tablet or phone) could be useful but not essential.

"I have learnt that everyone needs a second chance in life even if they have done something bad."

- P7 Pupil

"Just because someone in your family is bad or has committed a crime doesn't mean you will. People can change. Foxes can talk. Detectives are cool."

- P7 Pupil

"You really did facilitate some philosophical and reflective thinking / conversations - our curriculum is so packed that it was refreshing for the children to have the opportunities you provided to 'play' and explore important (to them) issues. Credit to yourself in creating that safe space that allowed some of our children to share in the way they did and perhaps needed to!"

It has been confirmed yesterday morning that the capture took place at the address in Redford, Glasgow, where Redford, 83, was caught on camera as he emptied the bin shed. The contents from the bin shed were captured on CCTV at the moment after the night time raid on the premises at Midland Place, Glasgow last Monday night.

the 43 second clip, the fox is casually leaving through a meadow with houses on either side. The fox looks around and picks up scraps from the ground. The operation is a success.
