

Question 5 🗣️

How often would you now use a woodland space with your child outwith nursery?

Answers

- Daily
- Weekly
- Once a month
- Occasionally
- Not at all/Never

Submissions distribution

◀ Previous Question

Back To Report

Next Question ▶

© Athena Testing, 2014

Question 6 🗣️

My child and I share a bedtime story

Answers

- Every night
- 2 - 3 times a week
- Once a week
- Occasionally
- Never

Submissions distribution

◀ Previous Question

Back To Report

Next Question ▶

© Athena Testing, 2014

Question 7 🗣️

Has the 'bedtime story' library helped you and your child in any way? Please tell us how.

Answers

- No, as he always chooses to borrow books which helps to identify vehicles which he can already do.
- Yes. Ellie loves books. It's great having the variety of different books and that she gets to choose them. It also gives her responsibility to remember to return them.
- It helps her to listen and pay attention to the story and helps my older two kids with their reading.
- Vinnie sits listens and pays attention now when I'm reading him a story
- We now get to read lots of different books at bedtime
- Nathan has started to enjoy going to bed more when we are reading the bedtime story
- James enjoys his stories and it helps him settle into bed
- Like mum reading a story at bed time
- Riley enjoys taking books home and enjoying them with his brother he is happy to sit and tell me the story just by looking at the pictures in the book
- As we read books very night at bedtime it has given her a larger choice of books to read and she loves bringing books home twice a week
- Carson would never sit and listen to getting a book read to him. Now he gets books home twice a week he loves a story before bed. He sits with his little brother listening to story's now. Really great idea that has helped us all and him enjoying story time.

◀ Previous QuestionBack To ReportNext Question ▶