

RAP Pizza Reading Session 2- Parents and children taking a break from playing the Dinosaur Icebreaker in the school playground. Icebreaker involved playing rock/paper/scissors and each game won meant that you moved onto a different mask, from Chicken and dinosaur to prince and princess. The last one standing was declared the winner. This was to allow some movement as the children had been in school all day and gave everyone an opportunity to mingle.