

I am 16, where do I go now...?

I want to stay on at school

Have you completed your option choice process?

Yes

You may have already started new learning for your senior phase qualifications.

What if I don't get the grades I hoped for?

Speak to your school. You may be able to review your options in August.

 @mysqa_sam
Twitter has updates and support from the SQA .

Find out more from Young Scot #ExamResults.

No

Speak to your school as soon as possible. Your guidance teacher or careers advisor can help.

Look at the resources on My World of Work to help you think about your options.

The Young Scot page has information on how the COVID 19 situation is affecting education.

It's ok to change your mind! If you are feeling anxious or stressed your school will be happy to help you... even if you have changed what you want to do.

I want to stay on at school but also study a course at college

You have chosen a blended learning approach. The SCQF explains different qualifications in Scotland.

apprenticeships.scot gives more information on Foundation Apprenticeships.

The Plan It website has lots of information about different courses available at school and college.

If you have questions about your college course your school guidance teacher or careers advisor can help you speak to the right person.

I want to move on to employment or study at college or university

Have you already applied?

Yes

The employer, college or university may ask you to complete an interview over the phone or online.

Worried about finances? Visit Student Information Scotland to find out about everything from SAAS funding to saving money on food!

Nervous about moving on to university? Use Unibuddy from UCAS to chat to current students and hear about their experiences.

Check the UCAS website to find out if your university is offering a virtual tour.

No

Some universities and colleges will still have spaces left. Go to UCAS clearing to find out more.

Not all college courses start in August. Your guidance teacher or careers advisor can help you explore your options.

The My World of Work website offers lots of advice on how to find and apply for a job, volunteer or start your own business.