Dear Parent/Carer

In April 2024, a team of inspectors from Education Scotland visited Papa Westray Community School and Nursery Class. During our visit, we talked to parents/carers and children and worked closely with the headteacher and staff.

The inspection team found the following strengths in the school's work.

- The effective direction and leadership of the acting headteacher and nursery lead practitioner. Their clear vision and drive have secured positive improvement in the work of the school and nursery.
- The school and nursery's authentic connection to the island environment, heritage and culture. Staff foster positive partnerships with the community and make effective use of the unique setting to provide rich learning experiences for children.
- The nurturing and caring ethos. The wellbeing of children is of high importance to all staff across school and nursery and sits at the centre of their work. As a result, children are thriving.
- The skilful interactions of nursery staff with each individual child. They offer time and space in a carefully considered way which supports children to develop their ideas and lead their own learning.

The following areas for improvement were identified and discussed with the headteacher and a representative from Orkney Islands Council.

- Continue to develop approaches to measure and demonstrate the impact of improvement work. The information gained should be used to support strategic decision making and inform future priorities across the school and nursery.
- Continue to develop the curriculum. Children will benefit from building their skills and knowledge in deliberately planned, progressive ways.
- Continue to develop and embed high-quality teaching and learning approaches in the primary class. This should include children taking further ownership of their learning in meaningful ways.

We gathered evidence to enable us to evaluate the school's work using four quality indicators from How good is our school? \(4th edition\) and How good is our early learning and childcare?. Quality indicators help schools, local authorities and inspectors to judge what is working well and what needs to be improved. Following the inspection of each school, the Scottish Government gathers details of our evaluations to keep track of how well Scottish schools are doing.

What happens next?

We are confident that the school has the capacity to continue to improve and so we will make no more visits in connection with this inspection. Orkney Islands Council will inform parents/carers about the school's progress as part of its arrangements for reporting on the quality of its schools.
