

Support & Resources for Creativity

Education Scotland's 3-18 Curriculum Impact Report on Creativity defines creativity and identifies 4 key creativity skills. It highlights examples of current practice across Scotland

READ

Join the national Professional Learning Community on Glow. Use the hashtag #creativity to share and discuss all things creative in a safe and supportive environment

JOIN

Subscribe to the Creativity Portal News Feeds. Receive news and opportunities from quality assured Creative Partners offering high quality creative learning opportunities and CLPL

learning opportunities and CLPL

CONTACT

Creative Learning Networks champion creativity in both formal and informal learning contexts. They offer support and opportunities to educators and creative partners in local authorities across Scotland

EXPLORE

The Creativity Portal is a one-stop shop for all the latest research, case studies, creative partners, learner journeys and films relating to creativity across learning

Plan for creativity, encourage dialogue, and capture progression of creativity skills using a range of tools available on

EVALUATE

The Creativity Portal

COLLABORATE

Scotland's National Creative Learning Plan is supported by:

Cabinet Secretary for Education and Lifelong Learning, Cabinet Secretary for Culture, Europe and External Affairs, Minister for Learning, Science and Scotland's Languages